Vaughan just hairs away

IT'S summer, there's cricket, an Advanced Hair Studio campaign must be just around the corner. In fact, here it is right now. Former England cricket captain Michael Vaughan, pictured, has joined the "yeah, yeah" brigade showing off his new head of hair in London yesterday ahead of commentating on his former England charges in the forthcoming South Africa Test series. Vaughan takes over where Shane Warne left off by having the Advanced Hair Studio treatment to cover up his balding bits. "There were certainly times captaining England when I was tearing my hair out. The game takes its toll," he said. "I'd wanted to address my hair loss for quite a while and I'm looking forward to showing the new thatch to the lads when I get to South Africa."

What the? *

Retired England skipper Michael Vaughan has followed cricket greats Shane Warne and Graham Gooch by promoting the Advanced Hair Studio. And news of his hair restoration has already filtered through to his former teammates on tour in South Africa. Tim Bresnan, who played with Vaughan at Yorkshire, said: "Good on him. If he fancies a weave, crack on son. And if he's getting a wedge of cash to do that, fair enough." Vaughan, 35, added: "There were certainly times captaining England when I was tearing my hair out!"
